- Giving gifts or leaving objects that are sexually suggestive;
- Off-duty, unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that affects the work environment.

6. Internal Complaints Committee:

- In order to provide a fair and unbiased hearing to the Complainant, the Defendant respectively and for effective redressal of the Complaint, an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) has been constituted by the Management comprising of the following:
 - Presiding Officer who shall be a woman employed at a senior level at the company from amongst the employees.
 - Not less than two Members from amongst employees preferably committed to the cause of women or who have had experience in social work or have legal knowledge.
 - One member from amongst non-governmental organizations or associations committed to the cause of women or a person familiar with the issues relating to sexual harassment.
 - At least one-half of the total Members so nominated shall be women.
- A quorum of 03 (three) members is required to be present for the proceedings to take place. The quorum shall include the Chairperson, at least two members, one of whom shall be a lady.
- The details of the current ICC have been provided in Annexure I.

7. Enquiry / Redressal process:

- Any employee who feels he or she is being sexually harassed directly or indirectly, may submit a complaint of the alleged incident to any member of the Committee in writing with his/her name, employment status (as the case may be) and signature within 10 (ten) working days of the occurrence of the incident.

- The Committee will maintain a register to endorse the complaint received by it and keep the contents confidential, if it is so desired, except to use the same for discreet investigation.
- The Committee will hold a meeting with the Complainant within 05 (five) working days of the receipt of the complaint, but no later than a week in any case.
- At the first meeting, the Committee members shall hear the Complainant and record her/his allegations. The Complainant can also submit any material in evidence with documentary proof, oral or written material, etc., to substantiate his / her complaint. If the Complainant does not wish to present himself / herself personally due to embarrassment of narration of the event, a lady officer for lady employees involved and a male officer for male employees involved, shall meet and record the statement.
- Thereafter, the person against whom complaint is made will be intimated in writing and will be asked to present himself / herself before the Committee on the designated day, date, time and venue. The person against whom the complaint is made shall also be given an opportunity to give an explanation, provide evidence in support of his/her defense. Once the person against whom the complaint is made has provided his explanation in writing the Committee shall proceed to conduct an “Enquiry”.
- The Committee shall prepare and hand over the Statement of Allegation to the person against whom complaint is made and give him / her opportunity to submit a written explanation if she / he so desires within 10 (ten) days of receipt of the same.
- The Complainant shall be provided with a copy of the written explanation submitted by the person against whom complaint is made.
- If the Complainant or the person against whom complaint is made desires any witness/es to be called, they shall communicate in writing to the Committee the names of witness/es that they propose to call.
- The Committee shall call upon all witnesses mentioned by both the Parties.
- The Committee shall provide every reasonable opportunity to the Complainant and to the Defendant, to put forward and defend their respective case.
- In the event, the complaint does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment or the complaint does not mean an offence of Sexual Harassment, the same would be dropped after recording the reasons there for.
- In case the complaint is found to be false, the Complainant shall, if deemed fit, be liable for appropriate disciplinary action by the Management.
- In the event the Complaint is found to be true or justified, then necessary disciplinary action will be initiated against the Defendant.

- The Committee shall complete the “Enquiry” within a reasonable period but not beyond three months and communicate its findings / recommendations for action to the head – Human Resources. The report of the Committee shall be treated as an enquiry report on the basis of which an erring employee (Defendant) will be awarded appropriate disciplinary action.
- The Head – Human Resources will direct appropriate action in accordance with the recommendation proposed by the Committee.
- The Committee shall be governed by such rules if any, as may be framed by the Government in this regard from time to time and made applicable accordingly.

8. Employee Education:

- All employees will be made aware of this policy by circulating this policy and ensuring that they have read the same by getting their signoff.
- A copy of this policy will be given to all new employees on joining.
